

Supply Chain Manager Marlborough, MA

Web Industries, a 100% employee owned company located in Metrowest, is seeking an experienced Supply Chain Manager to define and coordinate activities in production planning, purchasing, and warehousing and will drive corporate strategic objectives globally. Lead procurement objectives (LTA generation, Spend Analysis and categorization) for Web Industries globally. Drive inventory optimization globally. Assist in development and execution of SIOp.

The primary responsibilities will include:

- Developing and Facilitating SIOp process for key value stream
- Coordinating with production planning staff and scheduling of material flow to meet production schedules and customer requirements.
- Analyzing demand requirements to identify production and supply bottlenecks and recommends action for resolution
- Evaluating and recommends actions to improve on time delivery performance to the customer.
- Responding to Programs, Contracts and Product Management issues.
- Preparing reports on operations and activities, recommending improvements and modifications
- Developing systems and processes to improve and optimize how the MRP / ERP system is used to meet key business objectives
- Working closely with others within and outside the business to ensure the Supply Chain requirements are met.
- Interfacing effectively with Production, Sales, Purchasing and Warehouse departments for planning, production, Inventory Control, production related reporting functions and timely shipment purposes.
- Identifying opportunities for cost and process improvements with external supply base.
- Ensuring an effective level of inventory is maintained while contributing to the achievement of goals related to inventory turns, order fill rates, back orders, etc.
- Assisting with the physical inventory on an "as needed" basis to conduct cycle counts and provide data entry support.
- Leading all Strategic Cost Savings initiatives

The successful candidate will have an undergraduate degree in Business or other related discipline along with project/program management experience, including leading cross-functional teams; knowledge of business processes, including P/L driver; experience in multi-year complex contract negotiation and high-level strategic sourcing/ planning market study/ analysis; expert knowledge of good purchasing practices, contract law as it applies to procurement, and supply chain management; experience with Inventory Optimization (Safety Stock Analysis, Min/Max, etc.); MRP system is required along with a solid communication and collaboration skills for business stakeholders and vendor management; Aerospace experience and familiarity with Gov't Contracts & ITAR regulations strongly preferred. In addition, Familiarity with Lean Manufacturing and Six Sigma is a necessity. APICS and/or C.P.M. training/certification is a plus.

In addition to a strong employee ownership culture, we offer a competitive salary and variable bonus plan. As an employee owner, you will be eligible for some incredible benefits, including: comprehensive medical, dental, vision coverage with low deductibles, low out of pocket and low employee premiums and prescription drug plan with low co-pays; a company-paid stock ownership plans that, on average, contributes 7 - 8% per year.

Interested candidates who aren't just looking for "another" job should submit their resume in confidence to awensky@webindustries.com. We are an equal opportunity employer.